IMPORTANT: Tele transfers are irreversible. Once the transfer is made, the funds cannot be recalled.

You must ensure that you have provided us with the correct account details for the beneficiary. The Bank does not check that the beneficiary name matches with the account details you have provided. As funds transferred via Tele Transfer cannot be recalled, the Bank will not be able to assist with the recovery of funds from an unintended recipient.

You should be aware of the possibility of frauds, including investment scams. You should be satisfied that the beneficiary is acting legitimately, particularly if you have not dealt with them previously.

Please tick the boxes to confirm that:

- you have confirmed the BSB and account number with the beneficiary;
- you are satisfied that the beneficiary is acting in good faith;
- the details you have provided in this form are true and correct.
